The laborer, who has been in this country only a few years, said the sum represented what he had been able to save in twenty years as a workingman in Italy, and he wanted to invest it in the Liberty Loan. Mr. Middleton gave the patriotic laborer $300 for his hoard and the money was promptly invested in three $100 bonds. This same workman bought a $100 bond in the first Loan and is paying for it out of his wages.

Reports show that the work of women for the Second Liberty Loan has met with fine results. Suffragettes and antis have joined hands to sell the bonds. As an example of what they are doing the women in Buffalo, N. Y., have soid to date about $2,500,-

The Japanese Association furnished a magnificent float lile trating the awakening of Japan, and the German language newspapers furnished a float illustrating the part played in the development of the United States by citizens of German blood.

The Hippodrome elephants and camels fell into line after they had done their bit in the afternoon show at the big Sixth Avenue playhouse. The "tank" joined the parade at Madison Square.

Civic organizations and companies of bondholders followed the floats. The bondholders marched in companles of twenty, each in command of a captain. Thousands of them marched in the great preparedness parade, and their experience enabled them to make a fine showing from the standpoint of line and step. There were many women in line, aside from those representing the Red Cross and other war relief organizations.

Mr. John Miller, living at Waverly, Kas., after using tobacco 20 years, banished his desire for tobacco with a simple recipe which he mixed at home. In a recent statement Mr. Miller said: "I could not stop tobacco of my own accord, so used the follow-ing simple recipe almost two years ago and have not touched tobacco since: To 3 oz. of water add 20 grains of muriate of ammonia, a small box of Varlex Compound, and 10 grains of pepsin. Take a teaspoonful three times a day. As it has no color or smell it can be given secretly in teacoffee milk or in food. Any druggist can fill this recipe at very little cost, and it certainly will banish all desire for tobacco."—Advt.
